Welcome to Canadore College!

For more than 50 years, Canadore has been the college of choice for students from Ontario, Canada, and around the world. Canadore is built on five strong pillars – student success, program and service excellence, connection to community, sustainability, and innovation and entrepreneurship. The 5 Pillars act as Canadore’s operations decision filters to our actions. All that we do must align with the guiding pillars in support of the College’s strategic direction.

For you, our students, this means we will help you maximize your potential and acquire skills you will need for employment.

This handbook is a valuable tool. It will help guide you through the programs, supports, services, and opportunities Canadore offers. Please keep it handy.

Great Things Happen Here!

Experiential Learning

Experiential Learning (EL) can quite simply be defined as 'learning by doing.' David Kolb's Experiential Learning Cycle is most commonly used to describe the experiential learning process. Learners have an experience, engage in reflection about the experience, think abstractly about conclusions and applications from reflections, and apply the learning through active experimentation.

EL at Canadore provides students with hands-on experience in real and/or simulated work environments.

Whether an EL opportunity occurs at the college, in the community, or within a field-related workplace or industry, the purpose of these opportunities is to better prepare students for the workforce. EL opportunities will enrich your student experience and provide you with valuable exposure to potential employers and careers.

Examples of EL:

- Work/Field Placement
- Clinical Placement
- Service Learning
- Workplace/Lab Simulation
- Applied/Industry Sponsored Research
- Formal Course Projects
- Capstone Projects
- Job Shadow
- Performance/Artistic Production
- Internships
- Incubators/Entrepreneurial Activities
- Co-curricular Involvement Activities

For some EL activities, students will be required to complete/obtain Non-Academic Requirements (e.g., communicable disease screening, police vulnerable sector check, etc.) to be eligible to proceed with the experience. Students will be advised of any Non-Academic Requirements through program-specific materials contained within the program Student Success Guide, through Canadore's placement website, and as directed by faculty and/or a placement coordination staff.

Academic Integrity

What is Academic Integrity?

The International Center for Academic Integrity (2021) defines academic integrity as a commitment to five fundamental values: honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. They believe that these five values, plus the courage to act on them even in the face of adversity, are truly foundational to the academy. Without them, everything that we do in our capacities as teachers, learners, and researchers loses value and becomes suspect.

An academic integrity offence can include transgressions such as cheating, falsification, impersonation, contract cheating, and inappropriate collaboration. It is important to be familiar with all possible offences and to know how to avoid them.

Canadore's Academic Integrity Policy defines academic integrity as "honest and responsible conduct in all academic activity." This policy details what constitutes a breach of academic integrity and what disciplinary action will be taken depending on the nature of the breach.

Faculty members may permit or prohibit the use of Generative Artificial Intelligence tools (i.e., ChatGPT) in each class. Students are advised to review their courses' Section Specific Information, and/or consult with their instructor, to learn about whether Generative Artificial Intelligence may be used for classroom learning.
