

Pop-In Drop-In: Canadore Student Council

Q: What is the Canadore Student Council and what role does it play at the college?

A: The Student Council provides a voice for all students within the college. It works on student life initiatives, plans events, and offers spaces for students to seek guidance or support when needed.

Q: What kinds of events, activities, or initiatives does the Council organize throughout the year?

A: The Council organizes both large and small events. Examples include Pantherfest activities like Beach Bash and Backyard Bash, aviation-related events, weekly campus activities such as “paint a friend,” and special initiatives like the Wenjack Walk with donation drives.

Q: How can new students get involved with the Student Council?

A: Students can get involved through elected positions such as VP of Student Life, VP of Operations, President, and Campus Representatives. Elections are announced on the Council’s Instagram and website.

Q: Can any student submit an application to create a student club or group?

A: Yes, any student can submit an application to create a club that is not already part of the college’s offerings.

Q: Why is it valuable for students to get involved early with Council events or campus life?

A: Getting involved makes college a holistic experience beyond academics. It allows students to have a voice, contribute to campus life, and enjoy activities that make college more engaging and fun.

Q: Where can students find more information or stay up to date on Council activities?

A: Students can visit the Council’s website at canadorestudentscouncil.ca or follow the Instagram page for updates.
