International Orientation

Spring 2026

Land Acknowledgement

As we start our orientation session at Canadore College, we want to take a moment to acknowledge the land we're on. We do this to show respect and gratitude for the Indigenous people who have lived here for many generations.

Canadore College is located on the traditional territory of the Anishinaabeg people, within lands protected by the Robinson Huron Treaty of 1850. This land has been home to the Nipissing First Nation since time immemorial.

We want to recognize the importance of the land we call home. This is part of our commitment to building better relationships and understanding between nations, and to learning more about the local Indigenous peoples and their cultures. Across Canada, we acknowledge the land of the Inuit, Métis, and First Nations people.

Common Practices and Expectations

Understanding the common practices and expectations in classrooms and workplaces is important.

These include how people communicate, collaborate and show respect for others.

- Be on time for class or work.
- Respect other people's personal space and boundaries.
- Be Respectful of others' input and opinions even when you may not agree.
- Communicate politely and clearly.
- Be open to learning and following the specific policies and procedures of your workplace/classroom.
- Maintain good personal hygiene.

Being aware of these shared practices helps students feel comfortable, build positive relationships, and thrive while living and learning here.

Racism in Canada

Canada is a welcoming and diverse country, but you may still face discrimination or racism. If this happens:

- You are not alone. We are here to help and support you.
- You have rights. Everyone deserves to be treated with respect and fairness.
- We can help. Please report any concerns to the International Department. We will work to ensure you feel safe and supported.

We encourage you to participate in activities, meet new people, and share your culture. This helps build understanding and friendships.

HATE THE HATE

REPORT THE CRIME

HATE CRIMES.

A hate crime is a criminal offence committed against a person or property motivated in whole or in part by bias, prejudice or hate against an identifiable group. An identifiable group may be distinguished by race, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, sex, age, mental or physical disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression.

Almost any type of criminal offence can be motivated by hate. Examples of hate crime offences may include acts of violence or hostility such as an assault (hitting or spitting on someone) or causing damage to property. The key is that these acts intentionally target individuals or property based on the offender's hate towards the "identifiable group".

The Criminal Code also requires a court that imposes a sentence for any offence to take into consideration whether the offence was motivated by bias, prejudice or hate based on any of the identifiable groups, language, or on any other similar factor.

HATE INCIDENTS.

A hate incident is a non-criminal action or behaviour that is motivated by hate against an identifiable group. Examples of hate incidents include using racial slurs, or insulting a person because of their ethnic or religious dress or how they identify. For example, a neighbour dispute or a dispute in a parking lot which escalates to verbal abuse, derogatory or racial slurs. These incidents can be very harmful and lead to emotional and psychological stress. Police will respond to hate incidents and can provide education, support, and community resources to help de-escalate and address a situation.

Understanding and Reporting Hate Crimes

CRIMINAL OFFENCE	+	HATE	=	HATE CRIME
CRIMINAL OFFENCE	=	HATE	=	CRIMINAL OFFENCE
HATE	=	CRIMINAL OFFENCE	=	HATE INCIDENT

WHAT ARE KEY INDICATORS THAT A HATE CRIME MAY HAVE BEEN COMMITTED?

1. Comments made during the offence.
2. Motivation of the perpetrator or even lack of an apparent motive.
3. Victim's perception that they were targeted.
4. Display of hate symbols, gestures and language.
5. The manner in which the offence was committed.
6. Recurring patterns of harassment, humiliation or intimidation.
7. Other relevant circumstances surrounding the offence.

HATE SPEECH IN CANADA

The Criminal Code, sections 318 and 319 addresses hate propaganda. The offences are as follows.

Section 318 Criminal Code Advocate Genocide

Section 319 (1) Criminal Code Public Incitement of Hatred

Section 319 (2) Criminal Code Willful Promotion of Hatred

Section 319 (2.1) Criminal Code Willful Promotion of Antisemitism

Context is extremely important in hate propaganda investigations.

With the exception of public incitement of hatred, police must obtain consent of the Attorney General prior to laying charges.

"Hate propaganda" is defined in the Criminal Code as "any writing, sign or visible representation that advocates or promotes genocide or the communication of which by any person would constitute an offence under section 319."

CANADIAN CHARTER OF RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS

Freedom of expression is an enshrined fundamental freedom in Section 2 of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

Section 2 of the Charter reads:

Everyone has the following fundamental freedoms:

- freedom of conscience and religion;
- freedom of thought, belief, opinion and expression, including freedom of the press and other media of communication;
- freedom of peaceful assembly; and
- freedom of association.

Hate speech is not protected by the Charter.

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO REPORT HATE CRIMES?

Hate crimes are message crimes.
The message is, "You are not welcome!"

A timely and effective police response can improve the relationship between police and the communities the police serve. Positive relationships such as these can have extensive benefits in other aspects of public safety.

Hate crimes and hate incidents create community-wide unrest.

Hate incidents can escalate and prompt retaliatory action.

Others in the community who share the victim's characteristics may also feel victimized and vulnerable.

Hate crimes and hate incidents can lead to feelings of isolation, and emotional and psychological stress.

Hate-motivated crimes have long-lasting and serious side effects for society as a whole.

HOW TO REPORT HATE CRIMES

IN AN EMERGENCY: CALL 9-1-1.

Call 9-1-1, if there is an immediate threat to life or property.

- Stay calm.
- Call the police from a safe location.
- To report a hate crime or hate incident to the North Bay Police Service that is not an emergency, call 705-472-1234
- Protect and document potential evidence if safe to do so.
- Report exact utterances and relevant details.

To report crimes anonymously, call Crime Stoppers at: 416-222-8477 (TIPS) or online at: 222tips.com

What Do The Police Do?

- Community Engagement and Crime Reduction Officer.
- Public Speaking on various topics from social media awareness and safety to visiting elementary schools
- Organize and participate in community events.
- Beginning this year we will have an officer, at the University/College for 2 hours per week so students can ask any questions or voice any concerns

Canadore & Community Safety

911 & When to Use it

- To Report a crime in progress or about to occur
- For a situation when serious injury can occur
- Suspicious activity
- To report a fire
- When an ambulance is required
- If you need police assistance but it does NOT fall into those categories then the number to call is 705- 472 -1234

Canadore & Community Safety

What to do If You Dial 911 Accidentally?

- Am I in trouble????? NO
- Will this affect my future VISA applications????? NO IT WILL NOT
- What do I do?
 - If you hung up after hearing a dispatcher call back on the non-emergency line 705-472-1234.
 - If you receive a call from NO CALLER ID shortly after, answer it, it is our dispatchers trying to ensure everything is ok and you are SAFE
 - The dispatchers will have questions for you, answer them as best you can.
 - If we are unable to reach you by phone, an officer will have to attend your residence to ensure your safety which takes up a lot of police resources.

Canadore & Community Safety

Pedestrian and Road Safety

- Be alert
- At lights, ensure traffic stopped and pedestrian symbol is lit.
- Use designated crossing spots when crossing the street when available
