

The College Centre is committed to Truth and Reconciliation. We welcome learners into this virtual space with a land acknowledgement, so that we might reflect and act on Truth and Reconciliation. In doing this we ask each of us, what can we do to promote Truth and Reconciliation in our positions, and in our Institutions, so the words become actions for all of us.

As such, we acknowledge the Indigenous Peoples of all the lands that we are on as we join this learning space. While we gather on a virtual platform, we would like acknowledge the importance of the land, which we each call home.

We do this to reaffirm our commitment and responsibility in improving relationships between nations and improving our own understanding of local Indigenous peoples and their cultures.

From coast to coast to coast, we acknowledge the ancestral and unseeded territory of all the Inuit, Métis, and First Nations people that call this nation home.

Please take a moment of reflection to acknowledge the harms and mistakes of the past and to consider how we can each, in our own way, move forward in a spirit of reconciliation and collaboration.
