

Northcrest

Loren Shore

Senior Vice-President, Investments
lshore@northcrestdev.ca

Loren joins Northcrest from PSP, Northcrest's parent company, where he spent 11 years managing real estate investments, including the acquisition, disposition, and financing of more than $10 billion in assets. Most recently, Loren served as PSP's Director of Real Estate, overseeing its North American mixed-use, master plan development portfolio, which includes Washington DC's 'The Wharf' and the Boston Seaport.

Prior to PSP, Loren held real estate analytics roles with firms in New York City. Loren holds an MBA from Concordia University and a BA in Economics from McGill University. He is an active Urban Land Institute council member.