

If you are too busy to laugh, you are too busy- Proverb.

You should always laugh even when you're busy and when you're tired and anytime you can.

I chose this one because I always laugh with my friends.

I think it's important to share kindness because just a smile can brighten somebody's day.