POLICY STATEMENT

1. The Board is generally concerned about the issue of television violence and endorses the work of the Canadian Coalition Against Violent Entertainment (CCAWE).
2. The Communications Department of the Board shall disseminate information concerning violence on television programs so that the parent body is made aware of current findings.
3. The Pedagogical Services Department of the Board shall offer workshops on Board-wide professional days to sensitize teachers to the problem of violence on television. Resource people and materials shall be made available on request for this purpose.
