GENERAL STATEMENT

Bill 65, the Act Respecting Access to Documents Held by Public Bodies and the Protection of Personal Information, was adopted by the National Assembly of Quebec June 23, 1982.

This legislation requires that in public organizations, a person or persons must be delegated the responsibility and the concomitant authority to provide access to the documents of public organizations and to protect the confidentiality of personal information.

POLICY

The Board's Secretary General shall be delegated the responsibility to develop and monitor a system concerning implementation of Bill 65, with the understanding that the Director of Human Resources and the Director of Student Services may be delegated certain responsibilities, in regard to their specific areas, as deemed necessary.
