SUB-LIEUTENANT CHARLES WILLIAM PATERSON
ROYAL CANADIAN NAVAL VOLUNTEER RESERVE

Born at Montreal, on April 14th, 1917, he completed his education at Westmount High School, where he was an outstanding student, and graduated in June, 1934. He joined the Bank's staff in the latter part of the year at Masson Street & Fifth Avenue branch, Montreal, and after serving at other branches in the city was transferred to Upper Town branch in Quebec City. It was from that office that he enlisted in the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve in April, 1941, subsequently receiving his training at H.M.C.S. Kings, Halifax. On graduation from training he was assigned to sea duty aboard H.M.C.S. Lethbridge—a corvette on convoy service—and served in that ship for the next year. He was fatally injured in an accident aboard a Fairmile motor launch in Halifax harbour and died on January 14th, 1943, in Camp Hill Hospital, Halifax.
