Inspection and Review

Students may inspect and review their education records. If circumstances effectively prevent the student from inspecting and reviewing their records, or in KCU's discretion, KCU will make alternative arrangements or provide a copy of the requested education records. If applicable, select your preferred method of delivery.

If you are requesting documents to be processed and sent to a third-party, provide their name and information for their required delivery method.

Third-party delivery destination (email address, URL, or mailing address based on selection above):
