chathamdayschool.org
kkent@chathamdayschool.org

Director of Early Childhood & Admission - Kellen Kent
Play is paramount at this age for young minds to discover how things work, learn new vocabulary, role play, and explore the world beyond their families. Our Early Childhood classrooms are alive with sensory explorations, artistic adventures, and imaginary play. Friendships begin to form as parallel play gradually becomes more cooperative with teacher guidance.

GILL ST. BERNARD'S

St. Bernard's Road, Gladstone
908.234.1611 x247 gsbschool.org
Director of Admission: Sarah Rowland

At Gill St. Bernard's, in preparing our children to thrive in elementary school, we provide an academically and socially balanced preschool experience. Our play-based program, with individual and small group academic instruction, is intentionally interwoven to ensure each child is appropriately challenged, supported, and nurtured while joyfully developing socially, emotionally, and intellectually as young learners.

THE GODDARD SCHOOL

Director-Johanne Alameda

Our preschools are broken up into three completely separate classes according to chronological age and developmental stage. We do this to provide an environment where children can be independent and exercise a variety of personal, social, and emotional skills with children at similar stages of development. Vital cognitive skills, such as matching, sequencing, storytelling, and writing are all incorporated into the preschooler's daily routine. Preschoolers are introduced to Fun With Phonics®, an early reading program; and a foreign language for the first time with our L.E.A.P. into Spanish® or L.E.A.P. into Mandarin® program. Socio-dramatic play is encouraged at our Make Believe Boulevard®.
