

Dr. Harinder Sandhu

I have lifelong experience in dental education and leadership roles. I believe in collaborative leadership. Public protection is a joint responsibility of regulators and professional members. There are occasions when regulators have to intervene. However, punitive actions can be minimized by educating professional members about the college rules, standards, and guidelines.